Fellow application

Thank you for considering an application for Fellowship with the Australian Institute of Project Management (AIPM). Fellowship with AIPM recognises your contribution to your profession and the AIPM and allows successful applicants to use the post nominals of FAIPM.

Fellow criteria

Admission as Fellow of the Australian Institute of Project Management is by application or invitation only. Applications for admission as a Fellow must be forwarded to the National Office Membership Team for review and recommendation to the AIPM CEO.

Entry into the grade of Fellow may be by Standard Method or by Special Invitation as set out below:

- a) Standard Method: applicants for admission into the grade of Fellow may be admitted by the CEO if the Member Experience Team is satisfied that they:
  - i. Have at least 15 years of experience as a project professional, project manager, program manager, portfolio manager or in a project governance or sponsor role (or equivalent); OR
Have held the AIPM RegPM™ certification level of CPPD (or above) for at least 5 years;
  - ii. Have made a distinguished contribution to project management in Australia or elsewhere; OR
Have outstanding achievement in project management throughout their career.
  - iii. Hold the membership level of Member in the institute for at least 5 years.

Applicants must also:

- i. Have a written reference from at least one (1) current financial Member of the Institute; and
  - ii. Have a written reference from at least one (1) colleague that can vouch for their years of experience and provide background on their character and commitment to the profession of project management and has known the applicant for at least 5 years.
- b) Special Invitation: the AIPM CEO may at any time, invite a person to become, and admit such a person as, a Fellow on the grounds of expertise, experience or standing irrespective of that person having otherwise fulfilled the requirements for admission into the grade of Fellow set out in the above criteria.

A current financial Fellow may denote themselves as FAIPM.
